Receipt of Deposit Letter	(Complete both sides)
I understand that the county will send a fee deposit letter after receiving this FOIA request and that the letter is considered received three days after it is sent. The letter will include notice of the date by which the deposit must be received, which is 48 days after the date the deposit letter is sent. If no response is received by the county within 48 days, the county has no duty to fulfill the request and may may destroy previously-requested public records following applicable state and federal retention schedules. Once an FOIA request is abandoned, a new FOIA request is required to obtain any previously-requested public records that have not been destroyed.	(Complete Sour Globe)
I hereby agree and stipulate that should I fail to respond to a deposit fee letter within 48 days after the letter is sent, and I have not filed an appeal of the deposit amount, my request shall be considered abandoned and the county will no longer be required to fulfill the request.

Records Located on Website
If the county directly or indirectly administers or maintains an official internet presence, any public records available to the genera internet site at the time the request is made are exempt from any labor charges to redact ( separate exempt information from non-information ).
If the FOIA coordinator knows or has reason to know that all or a portion of the requested information is available on its website, the county must notify the requestor in its written response that all or a portion of the requested information is available on its website. The written response, to the degree practicable in the specific instance, must include a specific webpage address where the requested information is available. On the detailed cost itemization form, the county must separate the requested public records that are available on its website from those that are not available on the website and must inform the requestor of the additional charge to receive copies of the public records that are available on its website.
If the county has included the website address for a record in its written response to the requestor and the requestor thereafter stipublic record be provided to him or her in a paper format or other form, including digital media, the county must provide the public specified format (if the county has the technological capability) but may use a fringe benefit multiplier greater than the 50%, not to actual costs of providing the information in the specified format.
